Once a guest has made it to Captiva Island, we are proud to have an elevated offering to make their stay complete or fill in what may have been left behind," says South Seas General Manager, Shawn Farrell. "This type of shopping experience is just one of the many ways we are proud to be back and better than ever at South Seas."

Only 45 minutes, yet a world away, Captiva Island is connected to Florida's mainland via Sanibel Causeway and a small bridge over Blind Pass, joining it to Sanibel Island. Tucked away at the northern end of the five-mile long, one-half-mile wide Captiva Island, South Seas is between Pine Island Sound and the Gulf of Mexico, ensconced by two-and-a-half miles of powder-white beaches lapped by turquoise tides.
